Dear Ed: Tatum

As you probably know, I'll be in New York in a couple of weeks for a Harvey Lecture. It will be nice to see you again. We're just back from our trip to Australia.

Can you help me in making a hotel reservation? I rather hoped that the Rockefeller 'Club' might be ready, and if so that I might stay there. Would that be possible? If not, can you book me in anywhere that would be reasonably convenient for transport to the lecture, the Institute, etc?

I would expect to come in Wednesday evening (Dec. 18) and stay over Thursday night. On present plans, I'm probably coming alone, but Esther may change her mind, which can be patched up at the moment I imagine.

Hello to Vi.

Yours,

Joshua Lederberg
